THE LION'S WHISKERS.

By Mack Sennett

A pretty, working girl, sees in the movies a great opportunity. Her sweetheart, a chauffeur objects, but when he is permitted to do the driving for the taxi scenes, his objections are quickly overcome. Perilous thrills, hanging over space and much more than that, upsets the chauffeur's disposition and the climax is reached when he must sit quietly by and watch the hero make violent love to his girl. A squabble ensues, more real thrills than were actually provided by the scenario are furnished but love triumphs in the end.
